Denny Wayne Robinson

I am Denny Wayne Robinson, and it has been an honor to serve as your County Executive. I began my journey as a county commissioner, in 2006. As I was serving as a commissioner, I realized a need to go back to school to further my education and better understand the economics and fundamentals of local government. The information I obtained during my years as a commissioner and at my post-secondary education made me feel a need to make change, and, after graduation, I ran for County Executive.

I love serving the 27,000 White County residents in all aspects of local government: Infrastructure, Finance, Tourism, Parks and Recreation, Emergency Services, Corrections, and I was appointed by the governor to serve on the Launch Tennessee Board of Directors to develop and assist entrepreneurs across Tennessee. I was featured in the Governor's Conference "Anatomy of the Deal" as well as Highlands Economic Partnership annual meeting for the success in economic growth in White County's economy. We have over 2,000 more of our citizens employed now than before I took office.

In the past four years, I have been able to accumulate over $20 million in grants for White County, which keeps the taxes low while allowing White County to prosper. White County is no longer economically distressed. We now have a thriving economy.

It is a never ending honor to serve this great county and its amazing citizens. I will continue to protect and have the county's best interest in mind at all times as every decision I make is to benefit all of White County.

I am married to the awesome Sheila Robinson and have two wonderful children: Danielle Hall and her husband Damien and Rhett Robinson. Danielle and Damien have two fabulous sons, Nolan Wayne and Mason, who are heavily involved in local sports and absolutely light up any day. Sheila never fails to support me in the most endearing ways and amazes me each day with her ambition toward the betterment of White County. My son, Rhett, is currently attending University of North Georgia, a military college where he is a cadet. Both my children have always had a determined mindset and accomplished anything they put their minds to. Proud is an understatement for how we feel about our kids.

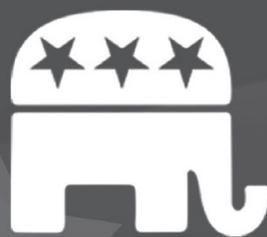

If you have any questions about me or my qualifications feel free to contact my office at (931) 836-3203.

Brandon Griffin

Brandon Griffin humbly asks for your vote for General Sessions Judge.

Brandon was born and raised in White County by parents that are also White County natives. He was raised with the traditional White County values of hard work, equality, and accountability.

While still a student at White County High, Brandon opened his first business. Griffin's Golden retrievers, which breeds and raises high-quality golden retrievers for families across the state, is still in operation. It's now run by Brandon's parents. Brandon saved his money from that venture and worked construction to pay for his college education. He earned a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Tennessee Tech, where he graduated with honors. After college, Brandon earned his law degree from the Cecil C. Humphrey School of Law in Memphis, graduating in the top 25% of his class.

Brandon knew exactly what he wanted to do: Serve the residents of White and Van Buren counties, who had given him so much. Brandon immediately opened his law practice in Sparta.

That practice has grown exponentially, and now five attorneys and five staff serving hundreds of diverse clients throughout the Upper Cumberland region. The practice is based in Sparta, and has satellite offices in Warren, Trousdale and Van Buren counties.

Having visited all of the General Sessions courtrooms in the Upper Cumberland, Brandon knows how to structure his court to be efficient, impartial and just.

If elected, Brandon pledges to bring the White County values of hard work, fairness, and accountability to the bench with him.

"If I'm elected your General Sessions Judge, I pledge to hold people accountable for their own actions," Griffin said. "I will work through every docket until all cases are handled properly. I promise to remain impartial and render justice fairly and without prejudice."

Brandon lives in Sparta with his wife, Danielle, and daughter, Ireliia. In his spare time, he enjoys kayaking, fishing, and spending time with his family.

Jerry Sawyer

My name is Jerry Sawyer. I will be running for White County Highway Superintendent and you will find my name on the Republican Primary Ballot on May 3rd, 2022. I would appreciate your support in this election and I would love to get to know you more and share with you what makes me qualified for this position.

Some of my qualifications include:

- Trustworthy, Honest, and Experienced
- Currently Employed by the Tennessee Department of Transportation
- Maintains White County Roads daily
- Budgeting Experience
- State Certified Safety Certifications
- EPA Road Inspection Certifications
- Willingness to work well with others
- Management Experience
- Experience Prioritizing Issues and Work Flow

My wife, Jamie (Maynard) Sawyer and I were both born and raised in White County. We are both very proud to live in and be a part of this community. My parents, James and Dianne Sawyer, were also from here. Sadly, my dad passed away when I was 9 years old. I do love that I am still able to hear stories from so many about him hunting, fishing, and working at Red Cap back in the day! My in laws, Ted and Wynette

Maynard, are two of my biggest supporters. My dad and Ted were best friends and Ted promised my dad he would always look after me. Little did he know, he'd be stuck with me forever!

In 2007, Jamie and I both graduated from White County High School. I went straight into working after graduation and I haven't stopped since. I am now employed at the White County TDOT where I've been for nearly 5 years, working daily on Road Maintenance. Jamie works at Life Church of Sparta which is where you can also find us on Sunday Mornings, where I serve as a Lead Usher.

We have one little boy who is 8 years old (Maddox) and being a dad is the most important thing to me! He keeps us busy with Basketball, Baseball, Soccer, Football, basically any thing he can do during the year! We are also so excited that we have another baby on the way, set to join us in August 2022!

My wife and I have many irons in the fire when it comes to our community. I serve on the White County Fair Board while Jamie is the PTO President at Findlay and serves on the White County Little League Board. We both love our home town, and we are always ready to help do anything we can to make it better! I would love to have the opportunity to tell you more about me and more about my qualifications! You may contact me at 931-644-3856 or Follow my Facebook Page Jerry Sawyer for White County Highway Superintendent to learn more!

John ELECT
GENERAL SESSIONS
JUDGE

OVER 18 YEARS of trial and courtroom experience.

Experienced mediator whom other attorneys often rely upon to mediate their clients' cases.

Committed father and husband who has served his community through several years of public service to White County and as a former attorney and child welfare worker for the State of Tennessee.

DEAR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS:

I have attempted to tell my story during this campaign. I hope I have not worn out my welcome. It's not easy telling people why they should vote for me. That is the very reason I have said I would rely on my friends and those that know me.

I have knowledge and experience in the law, common sense, and the moral integrity that you would expect of your Judge. I share the values of our community and joining my wife here 23 years ago was one of the best decisions of my life. I know that White County is one of the best communities to live and raise a family. If I'm elected as your Judge, I will work hard every day to keep it that way.

If you don't know me, please ask someone who does. I will accept their judgment. I think you will find that people are people as far as I'm concerned and that everyone should be treated fairly.

If I'm elected as YOUR JUDGE, I will do my best every day to MAKE THE RIGHT DECISIONS and make you proud of your choice.

I humbly ask for your vote and support in the Republican Primary on May 3rd. Early Voting April 13-28.

Sincerely,
John Meadows

THREE REASONS TO VOTE FOR JOHN MEADOWS

1. EXPERIENCE

Copeland, Foster Parent Advocate for Cumberland Region

As a legal assistant in a law firm John worked for several years. John was always respectful, dependable and extremely hardworking. He was assigned the difficult and complex cases and was relied upon for his trial and litigation experience. He has also served as my family's attorney. He helped my husband recover compensation when he was injured, and he assisted us in the adoptions of our children. We have always been able to rely upon John's experience, guidance and advice."

2. ABILITY

Diana Monroe, Clay County Director of Schools and Former General Sessions and Juvenile Court Judge

"For several years I had the pleasure of having attorney John Meadows in my courtroom. I found him to be competent, experienced, and always prepared. He has the proper temperament and ability to be an outstanding General Sessions and Juvenile Court Judge."

3. COMMITMENT

Colleen Tuck, RN, MBA

"John helped us remove our grandchildren from a dangerous situation. As time went on, we knew that if our grandchildren were to remain safe, we would eventually need to adopt them. It was clear that John was experienced and committed to helping us protect our grandchildren. This process took over three years and John fought for us every step of the way."

John ELECT

Cynthia Fields Davis

I would like to take the opportunity to formally introduce myself to the great citizens and voters of White and Van Buren counties. My name is Cynthia Fields Davis and I am seeking your vote for the position of General Sessions Judge. I feel blessed to call this beautiful area home and each of you neighbor. We are all very fortunate to live in these wonderful counties. This position of General Sessions Judge is unique in that it serves both counties. I assure the citizens of each county that I can and will serve both counties equally.

I reside in Van Buren County with my husband, Tony Davis, and our 15 year old daughter, Makena. I graduated from Nashville School of Law in 1995 and started practicing law the same year. I was a partner in a Crossville firm until I opened my solo practice in 1999. I have been a sole practitioner since that time in Crossville. However, I have always worked in numerous counties, including Van Buren and White Counties.

I decided to run for this position as I know that I can make a difference one case at a time. I have the necessary trial experience in various counties to ensure this Court is conducted efficiently and effectively. This Court handles many matters, such as crimes, domestic matters such as divorces and orders of protection, juvenile matters and small claim matters. I have handled all of these kinds of cases in my 27 years of experience.

All of the persons involved in any court case have one thing in common, that he/she wants their voice to be heard. And I believe every person deserves to be heard. As your General Sessions Judge, I will make sure that each person gets their day in Court and knows they have been heard.

Each and every case makes a difference in the lives of numerous people, either as a party to the case or the family or friends of those parties. Therefore, it is imperative that every case be given the individual attention it deserves because each person and life affected is important. I want every person that finds themselves involved with the Court system to walk away with the best possible resolution.

I am a firm believer that justice should be tempered with common sense. There are laws set forth by the state of Tennessee which every Judge must follow and I can assure you that I will do just that. However, there are some aspects of a case which are discretionary where common sense can and must be applied. As your General Sessions Judge, I will in no way keep the revolving door of the justice system turning. I will hold people accountable for their actions. But I will help those people seeking treatment for whatever issue brought them into the justice system to find the treatment needed to put them back on the right path.

I am a conservative, Christian republican that will uphold the laws of our great State and country. I humbly ask for your support and VOTE in the May primary to become your General Sessions Judge. Please join my team to make a difference one case at a time. We can make a difference together. If you have any questions or want to speak to me, please feel free to contact me. I would love to speak to each and every one of you.

John Meadows

native. Arlene and I have been blessed to live in one of America's best communities and raise our twin daughters, Avery and Allison, both 2020 graduates of White County High School.

My experience with the court in White County began in 1997 when I was working as a Juvenile Case Officer for UCHRA with an office in the American Legion Building, on Liberty Square. Being in the courtroom inspired me to become an attorney, and I worked full-time as a Case Manager for the State of Tennessee helping at-risk and abused and neglected children while attending night school at Nashville School of Law.

I have acquired a broad range of legal experience since I began practicing law, in 2003. I have been engaged in private practice for several years, focusing on family law, criminal law, probate, and civil litigation. Early in my career,

I served as an attorney for the State of Tennessee where I was responsible for prosecuting dependency and neglect cases in Juvenile Court and later served as an Assistant Public Defender assigned to the General Sessions and Criminal Courts in White County. I served as counsel for the White County Emergency Communications District from 2012-2014, and I have continuously served as the County Attorney for White County since 2014 and as the City Attorney for the Town of Livingston since 2008. In 2017, I was approved by the Tennessee Supreme Court's Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission to be listed as an approved Rule 31 Family Law Mediator. Having conducted several mediations, I am experienced in serving as a neutral, listening to both sides and helping people find common ground.

Judges have a significant impact on our daily lives and are entrusted to make important decisions. Your General Sessions Judge will routinely be called upon to determine, among other things, parental rights, placements for abused and neglected children, whether to issue an order of protection, whether to issue a search warrant or the appropriate length of someone's jail sentence.

I care about our community and believe that my values, maturity, and experience have equipped me with the ability and character necessary to effectively serve you as your next General Sessions Judge and to preside over your Court in a firm, fair and efficient manner. I pledge that if elected, I will strive to ensure the fair, impartial, and independent administration of justice and ensure that every person who comes before your Court is treated with dignity, respect and fairness. I further pledge to be a good steward of your resources and to have the same temperament the day after I'm sworn in, as now when I am humbly seeking your support for Sessions Judge."

Longtime White County resident John Meadows has announced his intention to be a candidate for General Sessions Judge serving White and Van Buren counties. John Meadows will be on the May 3, 2022, ballot in the Republican Primary.

Meadows states, "I would like to take a moment to introduce myself and my family and share why I am asking you to allow me to serve you as your next General Sessions Judge. My family and I have called White County home for over 22 years since I married my wife, Arlene Elrod Meadows, a White County

Macey Dawson Gurley

"I am humbled and honored to announce my bid as a Republican candidate for General Sessions Court in White and Van Buren counties. I have advocated for the individuals of both counties for several years. As your General Sessions Judge, I am committed to making our community safer for our children and families by presiding over matters in a firm and sensible manner."

Macey Dawson Gurley is a proud native of Sparta and graduate of White County High School and Tennessee Tech University.

She has extensive experience in public service and has interned with Congressman Diane Black (R-TN) in securing the nomination and later election into the United States House of Representatives.

She earned her Doctor of Jurisprudence from Regent University School of Law, a private Christian law school in Virginia. During law school, she interned with Congressman Randy Forbes' (R-VA) legal team in securing the nomination and later election into the United States House of Representatives.

Macey was the Executive Editor of the Regent University Journal of Law & Public Policy, and she participated in the Child Advocacy Practicum. Further, Macey assisted the Virginia Beach Justice Initiative in passing legislation to promote public awareness of human trafficking and impose harsher punishments for the perpetrators. In the Child Advocacy Practicum, Macey worked closely with local judges, non-profit organizations, and government agencies to develop alternative solutions for the problems in the Virginia child support system. Additionally, Macey interned with Judge Sam Benningfield, General Sessions Judge for White and Van Buren counties. She further participated as a judicial clerk in the Family and Domestic Relations Court in Chesapeake, Virginia. There she gained first-hand experience in all matters of the General Sessions and Family Courts by working directly with the Judges and support staff in the daily operations of the court system.

Macey currently practices law in White and Van Buren counties. Macey has practiced in areas of family law and civil litigation with a focus on divorce, child custody and support, juvenile law, criminal law, debt collection, detainer actions, and wills and estates. She has extensive experience advocating for children and families. Macey has also received specialized training to assist couples through the collaborative divorce process.

She is a member of Upper Cumberland Young Lawyers Association and National Association of Counsel for Children. She has devoted her time to the Upper Cumberland Young Lawyers in their local Wills for Heroes clinic and has assisted domestic violence victims in obtaining legal services through the Legal Aid Clinic.

She currently serves as a consulting member of White County High School's Career Technical Advisory Committee and hosts work-based students from the high school each semester. She further is a proud member of the GFWC in Sparta.

Macey has helped establish the Family Treatment Court in White County, which provides intensive services to parents while helping establish a safe and stable home environment for their family.

Her experience and involvement in the community is the leading factor in seeking the nomination of General Sessions Judge.

Roxanna Jones Hitchcock

My name is Roxanna Jones Hitchcock and I am excited to announce my candidacy for White County Register of Deeds. I am a life-long resident of White County and a graduate of White County High School. I have been married to David Hitchcock for 36 years. We have one son, Joshua, who is an accountant for the State of Tennessee. We attend Findlay Church of Christ.

With my experience as the Office Administrator at the Sparta YMCA, Corporate Team Member at TRW Automotive and a Small Business Owner, I have learned essential skills in leadership, good and effective communication, finance, budget, and payroll.

Working as a Corporate Customer Service Liaison for the automotive industry taught me the importance of detail, accuracy and time management. I learned the social and team building skills necessary to maintain departmental and corporate relationships.

Serving my community at the Sparta YMCA has been both satisfying and a very humbling experience. It has taught me a great deal about compassion for others and how vital serving and supporting the White County community is.

If I have the honor to be elected by the people as the next Register of Deeds, I will make it my goal to serve the citizens of White County by providing exceptional service while assuring that each and every citizen leaves my office fully informed and satisfied with their experience. It would be a great privilege to be entrusted by the voters to maintain and protect the records of White County. I humbly ask for your vote in the Republican Primary May 3, 2022.

Caroline Knight

Felony child abuse prosecutor Caroline Knight announced today she is running for Circuit Court Judge for the 13th Judicial District.

A Tennessee native, Knight has lived and worked in the 13th Judicial District, comprised of Clay, Cumberland, DeKalb, Overton, Pickett, Putnam, and White counties, since 2008.

"I didn't attend law school with the aim of becoming a judge, but after acquiring a balanced legal experience, I am compelled to run. I feel it is a moral imperative and I will bring integrity to the position," said Knight.

Circuit Court hears divorce and child custody cases, contract disputes and civil torts (including wrongful death) among other matters, in two divisions: Part I and Part II. Knight, who has handled cases in each of these areas, seeks election to Part II.

With more than fifteen years of broad legal experience, Knight has been an Assistant District Attorney General for ten years and has served as child crimes prosecutor district-wide for the last five years. Knight's jury trial convictions include first-degree murder and aggravated robbery.

Knight was licensed to practice law in 2006 and represented

Upper Cumberland clients in domestic cases, adoption, and property disputes as well as estates until 2011. Knight's advocacy includes briefs for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 6th Circuit and the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals. Knight's previous appointments include special judge (on limited matters) and Hearing Officer for the Crossville Housing Authority.

"Judges must uphold the rule of law. Fair and unbiased decisions are based on the facts presented, not on any personal agenda or motive," Knight said. "I look forward to treating parties in Circuit Court impartially and with respect."

Knight, a former Cumberland County Commissioner, is a member of the Tennessee Bar Association and the TBA Leadership Law Class of 2013.

Knight is a founding board member of Youth Achievement Foundation, Cumberland County; has been Plenary Lecturer for American Legion Boys' State; and has served various state and local boards of directors including The Legal Aid Society; the American Red Cross, Cumberland County Chapter and Avalon Center for Domestic Violence.

Knight lives in Crossville with her husband, Sean Stephens, and twelve year-old stepson.
